

TOWN OF WHITESTOWN, INDIANA
RESOLUTION NO. 2017-18

A RESOLUTION COMMENDING THE INDIANA GENERAL ASSEMBLY FOR ITS EFFORTS IN STUDYING APPLIED BEHAVIOR ANALYSIS AND HOW BEST TO EMPLOY APPLIED BEHAVIOR ANALYSIS IN THE STATE OF INDIANA

WHEREAS, public health is of vital importance to local government, the community, and the quality of life in our community; and

WHEREAS, the Town Council for the Town of Whitestown, Indiana ("Town Council") fully supports obtaining a better understanding of whether applied behavior analysis in treatment of individuals is being properly administered; and

WHEREAS, applied behavior analysis is more particularly defined in House Enrolled Act 1644, adopted by the 120th Indiana General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, studying applied behavior analysis and how best to employ applied behavior analysis in the State of Indiana can ensure that important public health services are properly provided to the citizens of Whitestown, Indiana.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Town Council of the Town of Whitestown, Indiana, that the Town Council, on the behalf of the citizens of Whitestown commends the 120th Indiana General Assembly for its action in creating a study committee for the purpose of reviewing licensing, independent centers, and he appropriate training for applied behavior analysis through the enactment of House Enrolled Act 1644.
